Welcome to 'Cogar' everybody. We have an exceptionally busy week or two coming up with various religious ceremonies and of course Seachtain na Gaeilge. Lots of things will be happening therefore keep a close eye on 'Cogar' to keep up with us.

Confirmation:

Our Confirmation students had a calm and peaceful morning on Monday by participating in a Retreat organised by Fr. Cillian. It gave the pupils an opportunity to reflect and enjoy some fun activities.

We wish every blessing and success on our Sixth Class Confirmation Pupils who will be confirmed at 11 a.m. next Thursday (5/3/26) in St. Michael's Church. Míle Buíochas le Múinteoir Laura who has been very busy preparing the pupils for this beautiful spiritual occasion.

Hurling/Camogie:

All the classes got off to a great start with hurling and camogie last Monday. Super skills were displayed by everyone — leanaigí oraibh a chairde!

A Blitz will take place for Rang 1/2 on 10th March 2026. More information to follow!
